KidsFest Promises Fun for Children of All Ages

School's out for the summer, and there's no better cure for those summertime blues than the City of Slidell's KidsFest 2009, an annual cultural celebration of visual arts, music and dance. It all takes place on Friday, June 5, in Heritage Park from 3:30 to 6 p.m. Admission is free and children must be accompanied by adults.

The fun begins at 3:30 in Scoggins Station for registration and the Sidewalk Chalk Art Display. After registration, the kids will be encouraged to display their creativity using chalk and the sidewalk as their canvas.

As a special treat, the first 200 kids (ages 1 - 14) to register will receive coupons for a free hot dog from A Touch of Italy Café and a free ice cream cone from Baskin-Robbins. The coupons can be redeemed at the respective booths where other goodies will also be available for a nominal charge.

At 4 p.m. the kids will get a chance to show their creativity with the Design-A-Pet craft project. "Kids will get a chance to create their own pet rocks," says Kim Bergeron, the director of the city's department of cultural and public affairs. "All the fixings will be available; feathers, sequins, bows, pom poms, googlie eyes, straw hats and much more." Slidell Art League Teens will be on hand to assist the kids with their pet project.

Besides the different art projects, KidsFest offers a non-stop entertainment lineup. Javier's Freestyle Dance Production will take the amphitheater stage from 4:30 to 5 p.m. with a dance exhibition and dance lessons for the kids. And Papillion, the popular Cajun storyteller extraordinaire, will be entertaining the kids in the gazebo from 5 to 6 p.m.

Admission to KidsFest is free. This event is brought to you by the City of Slidell, its Commission on the Arts, and the 2008 – 2009 Cultural Season sponsors, including Northshore Regional Medical Center; Whitney Bank; Slidell Memorial Hospital; Living Magazine; AT&T; CLECO Power, LLC; Louisiana Life Magazine; Mary & Dr. Dale MacCurdy; Sophisticated Woman Magazine; Baker Sales, Inc.; Creative Picture Framing Inc. & Art Gallery; East St. Tammany Chamber of Commerce; Hampton Inn of Slidell;
