Throw me Something, Mister Winners Announced in Slidell's Mardi Gras Decorating Contest

In an effort to help Slidell look more festive for this past Mardi Gras season, the Slidell Beautification Committee recently held its annual decorating contest. While businesses were encouraged to decorate storefronts, neighborhoods were also eligible to participate by decorating their subdivision signs and entrances with masks, beads, wreaths, anything with a purple, green and gold motif.

“We were pleased that so many businesses and subdivisions participated,” said Margaret Tingle, Chairperson for the Slidell Beautification Committee. “We awarded prizes for each category.”

Winners are: first place, Blossom Shop on Pontchartrain Dr.; second place, Carolyn's Wonderland on First St.; and third place, Dave Martin Insurance on Front St.

Subdivision winners are: first place, Olde Towne Slidell Residents Association; second place, Magnolia Heights Subdivision; and third place, Country Club Subdivision.
