

Where are they NOW? 2010

The City of Slidell's Department of Cultural & Public Affairs is looking for former St. Tammany Parish students who have gone on to pursue a career in the arts, to be featured in the upcoming Where Are They Now? curated exhibition.

The exhibit will open on Saturday, August 28 and will run through September 25. An opening reception will be held on Friday, August 27, from 7 to 9 p.m. The exhibit will showcase both fine arts (such as painting, photography and sculpture) and applied arts (animation, advertising and commercial art, package design and more). We'll also spotlight performing arts (including music, dance and theatre), literary works and culinary arts. It's going to be a spectacular celebration of all forms of art.

The objective of this exhibit is to illustrate to today's generation of students the many possibilities of careers in the arts, and we feel that by showcasing some of St. Tammany's finest success stories, we can achieve that goal.

If you're one of these success stories, we'd love to consider your works for inclusion. Please provide the information below and submit to us no later than August 2, 2010. Artists will be notified of acceptance by August 9, 2010.
