2003 - 2004 Cultural Season

Exhibits

Slidell Photography Club

August 22 - September 27, 2003

Photographers ranging in age from pre-teens to octogenarians come together to showcase their works in the Slidell Photography Club's Members Exhibit. Free admission.

Lin Emery: Kinetic Sculpture

October 11 - November 15, 2003

Her works have been described as constantly-changing displays of beauty and grace. Kinetic sculptor, Lin Emery, presents an amazing collection of sculptural forms which seem to create their own time and space. Free admission.

Mark Grote: Abstract Harmony

December 5 - January 3, 2004

This whimsical collection of three-dimensional works reflects the artist's focus on abstract harmony, spatial relations and resolutions of intoxicating frontiers of form and color. Free admission.

Mixed Media Juried Art Exhibition

January 16 - February 14, 2004

It's consistently our most unique exhibit of the year. Mixed Media features a festive array of juried selections of the works of artists from ten southeastern states. Free admission.

Commission on the Arts 25th Anniversary Celebration

Fine Silver Exhibition

March 5 - April 17, 2004

United States Debut!

One of the year's most-anticipated exhibits is "Fine Silver," featuring Contemporary Silverware by Irishman, Kevin O'Dwyer, and Irish Photographs by James Fraher. This unique exhibit received rave reviews when it premiered at the Espace Paul Ricard Cultural Centre in Paris. From there, it traveled to the Ulster Museum in Belfast. We are honored that the Slidell Cultural Center will host this exhibit as it makes its debut in the United States, as we celebrate the milestone Silver Anniversary of the Commission on the Arts. Free admission.

Salad Days Children's Juried Art Competition

April 30 - May 29, 2004

In May, we present the works of gifted young artists from the area with our Salad Days Children's Juried Art Competition. Sponsored by CLECO. Free admission.

Featured works, front side: "Sunset in Jean Lafitte" by Joe McCaffrey, Slidell Photography Club; "The Crocodile Tree" by Luz-Maria Lopez, Arts Evening artist; "Many Moons" by Lin Emery; "OBJ 332" by Mark Grote; "Boy Bouncing Beach Ball" by Colin Asmus, Mixed Media 2003 artist; "Hill and Trees" by James Fraher, with inset "Whimsical Salt & Pepper Shakers" by Kevin J. O'Dwyer; "Urban Serenity" by 16-year-old 2003 Salad Days artist Corrie Knoblauch; Javier dancers at Kids Fest; "Gold and Silver Teapot" by Kevin J. O'Dwyer. This side: "Sauceboat" by Kevin J. O'Dwyer; "Dennis" by Nolan Lefort at Gallerie de Bautte, Arts Evening participant; Santa at Christmas Under the Stars; "Robbie Matthews" by James Fraher; detail from "Fifty Bugs Project" by 9-year-old 2003 Salad Days artist Abbey Shurlds; Bayou Jamming with the Bucktown All-Stars.

Events

Arts Evening Festival

October 10 - 12, 2003

Arts Evening is the largest cultural arts festival in Slidell. This year's festival will begin on Friday, October 10, with "That's Entertainment!," in Heritage Park, featuring a variety of Broadway song and dance hits by the Slidell Little Theatre. On Saturday, enjoy the works of over 100 local artists at over 40 Olde Towne businesses, along with live music and a variety of dance exhibitions at locations throughout the festival area, plus casual or fine dining at any of the participating restaurants. The Arts Evening Festival will wrap up with a Bayou Jam Concert in Heritage Park on Sunday. Free admission.

This program is sponsored by the St. Tammany Arts Commission, an agency of St. Tammany Parish, in cooperation with the Louisiana Division of the Arts and the Louisiana State Arts Council.

Christmas Under the Stars

December 12 - 21, 2003

This spectacular, ten-day event transforms the city's Griffith Park into a winter wonderland of holiday lights, decorated trees, gingerbread houses, a miniature train village, Christmas cottages with animated figures, and a life-sized Nativity with live animals. School and church choirs and a variety of bands and performers add to the magic, as children visit with Santa and Mrs. Claus in the park's gazebo. It's a wonderful way to celebrate the holiday season. Free admission.

Art 'a la Carte

Spring Coordinated Gallery Openings

March 28, 2004

It's unquestionably one of the most tasteful events of the year. Art 'a la Carte is a progressive, five-course dinner served one course at a time at participating locations which showcase the works of regional artists. Tickets are $10, and include the cost of the meal.

Some Enchanted Evening: LPO in the Park

May 1, 2004

The ever-fabulous Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra returns for its second outdoor performance in Heritage Park. You won't want to miss this unforgettable event! Free admission.

Kids Fest Children's Arts Festival

June 4, 2004

What a wonderful way to kick off summer! Kids Fest is an exciting mix of hands-on activities, children's exhibits, song, dance and artsy fun in Heritage Park. Free admission.

Bayou Jam Concerts: Spring & Fall Series

This concert series has quickly become a family favorite! Join us in Heritage Park, behind the historic Train Depot, for these fabulous outdoor concerts. The fall series begins in September, and the spring series returns in March. Free admission.
